

A Road-Tripping Extravaganza

If you're a freethinking adventurer and a roamer of roads, you are officially encouraged to take a road trip with a purpose: the Oregon 150 Challenge. Oregon's sesquicentennial celebration (going on right now) is a spectacular excuse to get out and explore your favorite nooks and investigate a new cranny or two, while taking advantage of special deals all over the state. Complete the Oregon 150 Challenge by visiting five of the thousands of notable, delicious, quirky and beautiful places in Oregon, and you'll be eligible to win a Grand Oregon Tour.

Start by making your dream list of places to visit at traveloregon.com/challenge

